

CAS:8000-27-9

Natural

Cedarwood oil

天然柏木油

Cedarwood oil has a distinctive woody or oriental aroma with a long-lasting scent. It serves as a fixative and harmonizer, and is widely used in the formulation of perfume fragrances, soap fragrances, and cosmetic fragrances.

ODOWELL

Cedarwood oil Brochure

Product Name: Cedarwood oil

Chemical Name: Cedarwood Oil

CAS Number: 8000-27-9

Molecular Formula: Not applicable (complex mixture of terpenes)

Appearance: Pale yellow to yellow clear oily liquid

Purity: High-quality essential oil with a high concentration of cedrol. Density:

Odor: Characteristic cedarwood pencil-shavings woody fresh mild, sweet-balsamic scent.

Recommended Usage Levels

Dependent on the application. Use at moderate levels for fragrance applications.

Key Applications

Fragrances: Used as a fixative in perfumes and other fragrance products.

Cosmetics: Commonly used in soap and cosmetic fragrances.

Perfumery: Essential in sandalwood, sandalwood rose, and oriental perfumes.

Product Advantages

Fixative Properties: Helps stabilize and enhance the longevity of fragrances.

Versatile Fragrance: Blends well with other oils like bergamot, clary sage, and sandalwood.

Perfumery Applications: Suitable for various perfume types, including wood, mens fougere, lavender, chypre, and oriental.

Packaging and Storage

Packaging: Available in various sizes, including 10 ml amber glass bottles and 200kgs net pack.

Storage: Store in a tightly closed container, protected from light and heat, in a well-ventilated area.