

CAS:78-70-6

Linalool

芳樟醇

Linalool is a naturally occurring monoterpene alcohol widely recognized for its sweet floral aroma with subtle woody undertones.

ODOWELL

Linalool Brochure

Product Name: Linalool

CAS Number: 78-70-6

Molecular Formula: C10H18O

Purity : 98%

Appearance: Colorless to pale yellow oily liquid

Odor: Sweet, floral with lily-of-the-valley and fresh woody nuances

Recommended Usage Levels

Perfumes	0.1% - 4.0%
Personal Care	0.05% - 1.0%
Household Products	0.01% - 0.5%

Key Applications

Fine Fragrances: Enhances floral, citrus, and woody accords with a smooth, sweet character.

Personal Care Products: Widely used in shampoos, lotions, soaps, and deodorants for its gentle floral scent.

Household Products: Imparts a fresh aroma in detergents, air fresheners, and cleaning agents.

Flavor Industry: Used as a flavoring agent in beverages and edible products (subject to regulations).

Product Advantages

Natural Floral Aroma: Sweet and fresh with lily, lavender, and woody undertones.

Versatile: Compatible with floral, citrus, and woody blends for complex accords.

Stability: Good chemical and sensory stability in formulas.

Calming Effect: Known for its relaxing properties in aromatherapy.

Packaging and Storage

Available in 170kg containers, 10ml - 50ml sample packing.

Store in cool, dry, ventilated area away from heat and sunlight

Shelf life: 2 years under recommended storage conditions